EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Mr. John A. Wilson the President's Guest at White House.

French Ambassador to Entertain
American Ambassador to Paris.
Resort Notes.

The President and Mrs. Wilson have as a visitor the former's cousin, Mr. John A. Wilson of Franklin, Pa.

The French ambassador and Mme. Jusseland will entertain the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing and others at a dinner tonight at the embassy, in compliment to Mr. William G. Sharp, ambassador to France.

Miss Agnes Hart Wilson, who left Washington several weeks ago with her parents, the Secretary of Labor and Mrs. Wilson, for their home at Blossburg, is now visiting at Phillipsburg, Pa. Miss Wilson is inconvenienced by a sprained wrist, the result of a fall.

Mr. Benjamin Thaw, recently appointed third secretary of the American embassy at Paris, will leave Washington at midnight for New York after dining with the French ambassador and Mme. Jusseland. Mr. Thaw will sail from that port as a passenger on the Lafayette, Saturday, for France, to take up his duties.

Mr. William Dulaney Hunter, American consul at Nice, France, will sail from New York Saturday on the Lafayette, returning to his post, after a visit of some length to this country. Mr. William S. Van Rensselaer, recently appointed third secretary of the embassy at Rome, has secured passage on the same ship with Mr. Thaw and Mr. Hunter.

Miss Catherine Birney will leave next week to visit friends at Southampton, L. I.

The Italian ambassador and Countess Macchi di Cellere were spectators yesterday at the bathing beach at Beverly, when their young daughter, Countess Agnes, was one of the most expert swimmers there.

Mrs. Henry F. Lippitt and her sons, the young Laughlin boys, were in the throng on the beach at Beverly yesterday, as was also former Senator Albert J. Beveridge, the latter leading in a large swimming party.

Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, who were among the most entertained guests at Newport for ten days past, left there yesterday for points in Maryland.

Mr. Longworth was a guest at the beach luncheon party entertained at Newport yesterday by Mr. Preston Gibson. Mrs. Longworth was the guest of honor at a luncheon party entertained yesterday by Mrs. George P. Messersmith of New York at her home on Kay street.

Moving pictures of society folk in action—engaged in their regular social occupations—which have been for months a popular feature in the west, are having their first introduction at Hot Springs, Va., and yesterday pictures were taken on the golf links, tennis courts, at riding parties and elsewhere. A number of Washington people were in the companies.

Preston Gibson, responsible for more informal social entertainments in Newport than any other member of the Newport settlement, revived an old fad yesterday afternoon at Baileys Beach. The chief, butler and second man from Mr. Gibson's cottage, the Blue Bird, came to the beach at 2 o'clock with chafing dishes, ice drinks and fruit, which were spread before the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Eddy, Miss Roberta Willard, Miss Elizabeth Sanders, the daring swimmer of Baileys Beach; Mrs. Richard T. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pierpont, all wearing their beach costumes, were the guests. On the menu prepared by the chef were scrambled eggs, country sausage and toast, which kept the little beach party from having to go to their cottages in the hottest day of the season.

Now that Mr. Gibson has introduced this fad there will be others following.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mix, who were married in June, and who made their home at the apartment of Col. and Mrs. Harvey, in the Parkwood, have taken up residence in their own apartment at 215 P street.

Col. and Mrs. Harvey have returned from a month's trip through northern New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Dennis, who left Washington some days ago for a motor trip through New England, have reached Manchester, Vt.

The home of Mrs. Sarah A. Tucker, 316 G street northeast, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last evening, when her daughter, Miss Clara Louise Tucker, became the bride of Mr. Kingsbury De Lawder, the Rev. Leslie A. Bowers officiating. The home was decorated with palms and cut flowers. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Mabel Benizer Tucker sang "Oh, Promise Me".

The wedding march was rendered by Miss Reta Tucker. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white tulle, trimmed with white tulle and net, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Her veil was arranged with orange blossoms.

Miss Ruth De Lawder, the maid of honor, wore a becoming gown of pink crepe, miter and tulle. She carried a large bouquet of pink roses. Mr. William E. Tucker acted as best man and Misses Ethel Tucker and Eola Benizer were ribbon bearers. A large reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. Tucker and Mr. and Mrs. De Lawder received the bride and bridegroom in receiving. After September 15 Mr. and Mrs. De Lawder will be at home to their friends at the Melis apartment, 624 Maryland avenue northeast.

Mr. S. Constantini, first secretary of the legation of Greece, has arrived at Newport for the horse show, which will open tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Johnson and Miss Johnson, who recently left their home, 1810 Connecticut avenue, are at Lenox for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Murray Crane and their family are at their Mount Pleasant farm, at Windsor, Mass. Mrs. W. J. Boardman, Mrs. Crane's mother, is with them.

Newport will pay homage to Miss Margaret Fahnestock this evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock will give a large dinner at their villa in honor of their daughter. Later Mr. and Mrs. Fahnestock will take their guests to Hill Top Inn for a dance. Miss Fahnestock will make her formal debut this winter in this city.

Mme. Riano, wife of the Spanish ambassador, entertained at dinner last evening at the summer embassy at Newport.

Lieut. G. Goring Bliss, U. S. A., of this city, was best man at the marriage of Miss Mildred Emille Bruns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Bruns, POPULAR ARMY MATRON.

MRS. EDMUND L. BUTTS,
Wife of Maj. Butts.

and Lieut. John Bennington Bennett, U. S. A., which took place yesterday afternoon at Grace Church, New York city. Lieut. Bennett, who recently was graduated from West Point, has been detailed to the 13th Regiment, which is stationed at Manila, P. I. Lieut. and Mrs. Bennett will soon start for San Francisco, and will leave there for the Philippines about September 1. He is the son of Maj. John D. Bennett, stationed at Douglas, Ariz. The bride was attended by Miss Beale Doying.

Mrs. Henry T. Burnett, wife of Englebert Burnett, U. S. A., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Farrar, at their residence on Parkwood place, after spending the summer in Newport.

Miss Claire Collins of 713 21st street has returned after a delightful visit to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and Detroit, Mich., and Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. B. V. Darrell and niece, Miss Virginia B. Magruder, have returned from a month's stay at Atlantic City.

A party of Washingtonians, including Mr. A. B. Campbell, Mr. E. T. Harding, Mr. J. P. McFadden, Mrs. E. H. Campbell, Miss Susan Campbell, Miss Nellie Lyon, Miss Maizie Evans and Miss Belle Thompson, motored to Atlantic City for a week's stay.

Mrs. Ione H. Kitchen of East Wardman Court returned yesterday from a visit to Mrs. Thomas Marshall at Old Point Comfort.

Mrs. William Livingston Crounse, with her niece, Miss Miriam Werner, is spending August and September at her summer home, Spruce Cove, near Chester, Nova Scotia, where Mr. Crounse recently finished an artistic bungalow. Mr. Crounse will join his wife early in September and they will spend a fortnight in New York in October, before returning to Washington for the winter.

Mrs. Martin A. Morrison, wife of Representative Morrison of Indiana, is spending the summer at her mother's country home, Solitude, in the Blue Ridge mountains, near Blount, Va. Recently Representative and Mrs. Morrison entertained fifty members of the Washington colony in honor of their house guest, Mrs. Charles Hall of Athens, Pa., at a porch party. Among the guests present were Mrs. W. B. McReynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Carpenter, Rear Admiral and Mrs. John Watson, Prof. and Mrs. Joseph Kasper, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Droop, Misses Katherine Speer, Beatrice Wilson and Louise Santorelli and Miss Speer. Miss Santorelli closed a pleasant afternoon with a delightful program of piano music.

Mr. Stokely W. Morgan, who was recently appointed secretary of the embassy at London, is preparing to sail for England. Mr. Morgan, who recently completed a course at Potsdam, was a Harvard graduate in June.

Miss Maude King of 3215 Sherman avenue entertained at a luncheon today at her home. The guests included Mrs. Kerise King, Mrs. E. H. Campbell, Miss Beulah Blackwell and Marion Davis, Mrs. John King and Mrs. Charles Williams.

Collier Hector to Be Raised.
 The naval collier Hector, broken in two and sunk by a recent hurricane off the South Carolina coast, is to be raised and reconstructed. The Navy Department announced today that a contract for the work had been let and operations to this end would be begun soon. Naval constructors have examined reports on condition of the vessel made by the board of inquiry and believe that its pieces can be raised and the vessel mended.

KEEP YOUR EYES ON SATURN.
Planet Due to Disappear Behind the Moon Tomorrow Morning.
 If you happen to be awake in the wee sma' hours tomorrow morning, keep your eyes on the planet Saturn.
 At 3:11 o'clock the planet will begin to disappear behind the waning crescent moon, a somewhat rare celestial phenomenon, known in astronomy as a lunar Saturn eclipse or occultation.
 While occultations of stars and planets are not infrequent, that of Saturn is comparatively rare. It will take Saturn until 4:13 o'clock a.m. to go behind the moon and come out again. As the moon moves relatively eastward, Saturn will disappear at the bright edge of the waning moon, and come out again on what is known as the moon's "limb."
 The last occultation of a planet was that of Mars, January 28, 1912, and the last lunar eclipse of Saturn occurred July 10, 1906.

Additions to Forest Reserve.
 Addition of 66,880 acres to the government's forest reserves in the Appalachian and White mountains, bringing the total area purchased up to 1,396,367 acres, is announced by the national forest reservation commission. Fifty-nine tracts are comprised in the new acquisition, the largest being in the "Katahdin" purchase area in New Hampshire, and covering 36,000 acres. About 17,000 acres are in the White mountains, making the total acquired there 638,686 acres.
